IV. (49~50)

Long time ago, people didn't live in cold places because they didn't know the way to keep themselves warm there. Lightning started the first fire. When lightning hit trees, fire started. People took some of the fire to their homes. Fire was very important at that time. It could keep them warm. Wild animals were afraid when they saw fire. Besides, when they used fire to cook food, the food tasted much better.

But men didn't know the way to make a fire. When they had fire, they didn't let it go out. When it went out, they had to wait for another lightning. Now we are lucky to know the way to make a fire, but we have to put it out for our safety.
