There is a war in Syria. It started in 2011. Lots of people there lost their families during the war. They are afraid of losing their lives, too. So, many people ran away from their homes in Syria these years. Over 5 million people said goodbye to their homes and became refugees in other places. Some of them walked a long way to other countries, and some of them went to other countries by boat. However, many people died on their way to other countries. After they got to a new country, they could only stay in refugee camps.

Abdallah, a 14-year-old boy from Syria, is now staying in a refugee camp with his parents. They really want to go back to their home, but they need to wait until the end of the war. Abdallah said to a reporter, "It's very dangerous now in Syria. We have an old cellphone, and it's very important for us. It's the only way to talk to our family in Syria. I hope they are still safe. And I miss them so much."

Museum Night

Welcome to the website of Queen Victoria Museum of Art. February 23th is the birthday of our museum. We are going to have a "Museum Night".

 What is special about "Museum Night"?

Our Museum Night will start at 7 p.m. and end at 10 p.m. We are going to invite some popular bands and famous singers. Also, we will prepare delicious snacks and drinks. You can enjoy the show and food in the garden. However, please don't bring them inside the museum. We will show the paintings of Monet and Vincent van Gogh at Museum Night.

 How do I get to the museum?

If you drive to our museum, you can park your car along the Princess River. Our museum is right across from it. You can also take Bus 616 and get off at Queen Victoria stop. We are next to the bus stop. There isn't any subway station near our museum. If you want to come to our museum by subway, you can use the WeBike after you get off at Prince Square. Just go along the Princess River, and you will see our museum on the corner of King Charlie Road and Queen Victoria Street.

Hope to see you next Sunday! Welcome to have fun with us on that night!

All about The Farmhouse

The Farmhouse is a famous farm in the north of New Zealand. Many students from Taiwan visit this farm every year. It's a farm and also a place to learn English. It's famous for its learning trip. Students can study English and experience life there.

Students there have to use English all day, not just in class. They study English with teachers at school during the daytime. And they learn everyday English with a homestay family after school. English in New Zealand is a little different from American English. Students can have fun learning new words like “tramping” for hiking or “bro” for friend. These are words from the Maori language.

After school, students can learn to ride horses at The Farmhouse. There are also several wonderful natural sights near the farm. They can ride horses to see mountains and lakes. There are snowy mountains near The Farmhouse. Students can go skiing in snowy season. In summer, they can go kayaking on the lake. Students can even learn Maori dance. Maori men dance Haka to show their power. Maori women dance Poi to make their arms and hands strong. There will be a talent show at the end of the learning trip.

Take a learning trip to The Farmhouse in New Zealand, and you can practice your English a lot. Also, it will be a great time to try many new things in a beautiful country.
