第三部分：題組（題號 31~45，共 15 題，每題 2 分，共 30 分）

請依據選文，選出一個正確或最佳的答案。

I. (31~33)

Dear Maggie,

I know you won't be happy but I still have to say this again. It hurts me to think that you're going to change the way you are. I know you've always wanted to be like those actresses with big eyes and slim legs, but, in fact, you are already beautiful. What you are born with makes you special because nobody looks the same as you.

It worries me more that you don't think you're good enough. But sadly, there's no quick fix to this, not even with a doctor's help. If you don't try to like yourself first, no one else will. People like you not because of your face, but because of your heart. You need to understand this first. Until you understand this, nothing is going to be different even if you make this change.

I truly hope you think this through again.

Love,
Linda

- () 31. Why did Linda write this letter to Maggie?
- (A) She hopes to change the way she is.
 - (B) She wants to help Maggie to become more beautiful.
 - (C) She agrees that Maggie should change the way she is.
 - (D) She doesn't think it's a good idea for Maggie to change her looks.
- () 32. According to the letter, which is true?
- (A) Linda thinks Maggie just looks the same as the public.
 - (B) Maggie has big eyes and slim legs like most actresses.
 - (C) Linda felt sad because Maggie told her to change the way she is.
 - (D) Maggie wants to be like those actresses with big eyes and slim legs.
- () 33. Which sentence share the same point with what Linda thinks?
- (A) "It is going to be quite different if you change the way you are."
 - (B) "When people see you at first sight, they only care about the way you look."
 - (C) "People like to be your friend because you always treat everyone kindly and friendly."
 - (D) "You should not change the way you are because it's impossible for you to become prettier."

II. (34~36)

Elizabeth was born in London on April 21, 1926. At that time, no one 34 one day she would become the queen of the UK. Ghost Kitchen

Food delivery services have become more common and popular in many countries. It is also becoming a common part of life for many people in Taiwan. More and more people choose to take out to eat at home. Because of this new kind of business model, restaurants no longer need a place for people to eat in. These are ghost kitchens, a kind of restaurant that only sells food through delivery services.

There are a few kinds of ghost kitchens. Some are just a small kitchen. People can only buy their food through delivery. Others share the kitchen with ordinary restaurants during open hours. There are also some ghost kitchens that rent out their large kitchens to several different food services. They might make food for 10 or more restaurants.

The cost of running ghost kitchens is much lower than ordinary restaurants. Besides, food delivery service is getting more popular, opening your own restaurant may not be a dream anymore.

When you hear the word "ocean", what do you think of? Have you ever tried to swim with lots of garbage around you? In fact, there is a serious trash problem in Kamilo Beach of Hawaii. People there call it "plastic beach." Most of the trash comes from ocean waves. Some of the trash 40 there since the 1950s.

If you go sailing between Hawaii and California, you'll find a big part of the ocean, as big as Africa, covered with garbage. Most of the garbage comes from land by wind or water. And some people still throw their garbage into the sea today. Most of the garbage is plastic: bags, cups, bottles, and a lot more.

41 ? Some just stays in the sea, some stays at the beaches, and worst of all, some goes into seabirds' and sea animals' stomachs. Many seabirds and sea animals eat garbage and die very quickly. Some lucky sea animals may still live but someday show up on our dinner plate as our dinner. That means if people keep throwing away the garbage, it will 42 .

To save the oceans, think twice before you throw anything away. After all, we only have one Earth, right?

January 1983 – City Hall of San Francisco

Did the fortune cookie come from Los Angeles or San Francisco? You decide...

No Chinese city has said it is the father of the fortune cookie. But, strangely, two American cities have: Los Angeles and San Francisco. The two cities went to the judge to win the case.

Los Angeles's Case

David Jung, founder of the Hong Kong Noodle Company, made the first fortune cookie in 1918. At first, he gave the cookies to poor or homeless people in LA. Later, people who went to his restaurant could get the cookies before dinner.

San Francisco's Case

Makota Hagiwara, a Japanese-American gardener in San Francisco's famous park, Golden Gate Park, lost his job in 1907. This was because a city leader did not like Japanese people. Then the people of San Francisco got angry about this. Hagiwara got his job back. To say thanks, he handed out cookies with a fortune inside. They were Japanese words.

The Winner

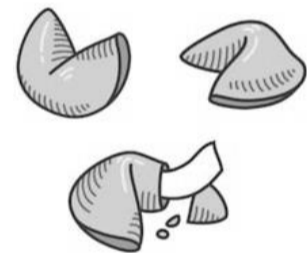

The Judge said San Francisco won because the city had Hagiwara's cooking grill (BBQ) to show it was true.

What do you say? Who made the first fortune cookie?
