二、綜合題組 (每題 2 分, 共 30 分)

(30~32)

When you need to see a doctor, surely you will want to see a good one. But there is one important thing you may never have thought about: _____ 30 _____

Doctors in our country often have to work 34 hours or longer without sleep. Most of them work 104 hours a week, and some even 150. (There are only 168 hours a week!) One report said that a doctor who works such long hours cannot think more clearly than _____ 31 _____. Another found that doctors who sleep 5.8 fewer hours than the week before might make 22% more serious mistakes. Surely no one wants to get in a car that is driven by a drunk driver. So, how safe would you feel when you are under the care of a tired doctor?

Sadly this problem has been around for a long time. There are no laws about it yet and hospital bosses don't look like they care either. And that is why we doctors are asking you to _____ 32 _____ us on the street this Sunday. Fight together with us on the street so we can fight better for your life in the hospital.

 Time: 1 p.m. May 2nd

 Place: City Hospital Square

30. (A) Does your doctor have many patients? (B) Is your doctor very experienced?
(C) Has your doctor rested enough? (D) How many years has your doctor worked?
31. (A) an excited player (B) a smart student (C) a serious scientist (D) a drunk driver

Over the years, the number of whales has dropped sharply. From 1946 to 1986, about 340,000 whales _____ 33 _____. People worry that children in the future can only see whales in pictures. They believe all kinds of whaling (whale hunting) should be stopped before it's too late.

Some people are trying to stop whaling all over the world. But they fail to notice one fact: Whaling _____ 34 _____ for a long time before the number of whales went down and became a problem.

Whaling started as early as 1,500 years ago. This was how tribespeople fed their families. They hunted whales for meat because almost nothing could grow on their land. They also made whale fat into oil and used it _____ 35 _____ candles or oil lamps. Over the years, whaling became their way of living, and even part of who they are.

Tribe whaling is not the thing we should worry about. Of all the whales that were killed over the past forty years, only 10% were hunted by tribespeople. The other 90% died at the hands of the money-making whaling business. When we try to stop all kinds of whaling, we should think what we are asking tribespeople to give up and whether this is the best answer to the problem of whaling.

33. (A) have been killed (B) were killed (C) are killed (D) should be killed
34. (A) was going on (B) was gone on (C) has gone on (D) is going on
35. (A) making (B) to make (C) made (D) makes

Each country has her national flag, and usually there is a story behind each national flag. The national flag of the United Kingdom tells an interesting story, too.

The UK has four parts. They are England, Wales, Scotland, and Northern Ireland. They all have their own flags. When Wales became part of England in 1542, the flag of England was the one used – nothing was changed.

However, in 1603, when Scotland joined England to become a new country, the two national flags were put together to have a new flag. The last member, Ireland, joined the kingdom in 1801, and it was in that year that the modern flag we see today appeared. In 1992, however, parts of Ireland left the kingdom to become a new country. It also started to use its own flag.

36 Which is true about how the UK got its national flag?

- (A)  +  +  =  (B)  +  +  =
- (C)  +  +  =  (D)  +  +  =

37. Which is said about Ireland?

- (A) Part of it became a new country, and part of Scotland did, too.
- (B) It was the first member to join the United Kingdom.
- (C) It has used the national flag of the UK since it joined the kingdom.
- (D) The old Ireland's flag can still be seen on today's national flag of the UK.

38. Which is NOT true?

- (A) The whole of Ireland still belongs to the UK.
- (B) When Wales became part of England in 1542, it still used the flag of England.
- (C) Scotland became part of the UK in 1603.
- (D) The UK got its modern flag in 1801.

Bodybuilder Delivery Helps Sushi Business in Japan

September 4th, 2020

A sushi restaurant in Japan has come up with a new idea to help its business. It is using bodybuilders to deliver sushi to people's homes and workplaces. The restaurant is in the center of Japan and is owned by 41-year-old Masanori Sugiura. He is the owner of the 60-year-old Imazushi Restaurant. Mr. Sugiura is not only a sushi chef but also a bodybuilder. He won the third place in a world bodybuilding game earlier this year. He wanted to increase sales in his restaurant after the number of customers dropped because of coronavirus. Mr. Sugiura called his service "Delivery Macho". Customers need to order at least 7,000 yen (US$66) of sushi to get their food delivered by a bodybuilder.

The Delivery Macho service is popular with customers. Even though the restaurant is in the center of Japan, Mr. Sugiura says he has delivered sushi to places as far away as Tokyo and Osaka. Tokyo is around 350km from the restaurant. The service has also been popular on Twitter. Customers can take photos with the bodybuilding delivery men, and they would take their shirt off and pose for photos at the doorstep. Of course, the delivery men stay socially distanced with their customers. This has helped to increase orders for the restaurant. Mr. Sugiura said he recruited his friends from gyms to work as sushi delivery worker and the service has also helped people out of work.

The Sony Walkman is back from 1979 and you can buy it now

The first Sony Walkman was sold in 1979. For its 40th birthday in 2019, Sony made a new high-tech Walkman for a new model. Let's take a look at how technology changes.

Then

The 1979 Sony Walkman cost $150. Millions and millions were made. It played tapes. It was really the first machine that let a person carry their music anywhere. It could play 30-120 minutes of music. It used two AA batteries. The batteries died in about 20 hours. You threw them away and bought new ones.

Now

The 2019 Sony Walkman costs $599 and only a few thousand are for sale. It is powered with 16GB of music, or about 3000-3500 songs. It connects to Wi-Fi and Bluetooth. It can use wireless or old-fashion headphones. It looks like the old Walkman but it plays no tapes. The battery can last 40 hours and recharge.
