Below is a page from Katie's diary.

Dear Diary,

June 7, 2011

I was very sad to hear what happened to Woollie yesterday. Woollie was my favorite sheep. I have a storybook about Woollie. It says when Woollie was four, he ran away from Mr. Armstrong's farm, and it took Mr. Armstrong six years to find Woollie. But Woollie had grown so much fleece that he didn't even look like a sheep. Mr. Armstrong decided to cut his fleece on TV so everyone could see. Daddy said this happened on the day I was born. Woollie's fleece weighed 27 kg, and could make clothes for 20 large men. I asked Daddy if his favorite vest was made from Woollie's fleece. Daddy said no, because Woollie's fleece was sold to collect money for sick kids. In the storybook, Woollie was taken to see Ms. Stella Clark, the leader of our city then. They even had tea together. Daddy said Woollie did meet Ms. Clark, but he wasn't sure if they had tea. Daddy said Woollie was put down because he was too sick and there was no way to help him. I cried. I hope Woollie will be happy up there in the sky.

[36~38] (每題 2 分，共 6 分)

After a lot of tests and interviews, you finally got into a good school or got a good job. But there's a problem: it's a long way from home. "Well, I can take the bus or drive," you might think. But before you decide whether it's OK to have such a long commute, it's best to know 36.

Having a long commute means you'll get fewer hours of sleep, and that'll make you feel tired easily. You'll also have less time for friends and family, for exercise, or for a nice meal.

A long commute not only eats up your time but also 37. Studies show that people who have a long commute get fat easily and often have neck or back problems. It's easier for them to have heart problems too. 38. Studies find that these people get angry more often, feel less happy with their lives, and do less well at work.

Now, does that good school or that good job still sound good to you?

People in Taiwan enjoy delicious food. We can always see people wait in a long line at food stands or restaurants. However, do they really know what they put into their mouths?

Tammy ate out every day before, but now she cooks by herself. What changed her? Well, five years ago, she was diagnosed with colon cancer. She was surprised when she heard the news. She asked herself why she got cancer at such a young age. The doctor told her it was because she seldom ate fruit or vegetables. Besides, she ate too much meat and even had a barbecue with her friends every weekend.

After getting cancer treatment, Tammy recovered from her illness little by little and finally became healthy. She has been careful about what she eats since then. Now she cooks at home and eats a lot of vegetables. She always tells her family and friends that everyone should care about what they eat.

三、言談理解：根據聽到的內容，選出一個最適合的答案。

11. M: Gina, you've already been in the kitchen for two hours. What are you busy with?

W: I'm baking cookies. My best friend's birthday is coming. I want to give her my cookies as her birthday gift.

M: That's sweet. Do you need any help?

W: Yes. Can you bring a fan to me? The cookies are still hot. I need a fan to cool them.

M: Sure.

Q: What is the woman doing in the kitchen?

12. W: Sir, you have been here for hours. Do you need any help?

M: Oh... Thank you.

W: Where do you live? I can ask the police to drive you home.

M: Well, I can't remember that.

W: That's OK. Do you carry any notes in your pocket?

M: Oh, yes. Here.

W: Great. It's your wife's phone number.

Q: What will the woman do next?

13. W: It's break time. Let's play soccer at the playground.

M: Wait a minute. I'm still working on the online quiz. I don't know where to upload the file.

W: That's easy. Let me show you.

Q: What happened to the man?

14. M: What happened, Jane? You look worried.

W: Well, I have a job interview tomorrow, and I feel so nervous. I'm not sure if I can do well, and I don't even know what to wear to the interview.

M: OK. Just cool down. I don't know whether you can do well or not tomorrow, but I can tell you what clothes you should wear and where you can get them. Let's go.

W: Thanks. You are a big help.

Q: How will the man help the woman?

15. M: Look at this. There's water coming out from under it. Something's wrong. Don't you think we need a new one?

W: I don't think so. I think it's still working very well.

M: Very well? It can't even keep the food cold. Last time I put the ice cream inside, and it turned into milk shake.

Q: What may the man and the woman be talking about?
