The earth is getting warmer with more and more greenhouse gases in the atmosphere. What are greenhouse gases? Where do they come from?

A greenhouse is a special glass house for planets. It keeps the heat of the sun , and the plants inside can grow better. Some gases in the atmosphere work like a greenhouse and can keep the heat of the sun, so we call them greenhouse gases. In fact, without greenhouse gases, our earth would be too cold for life.

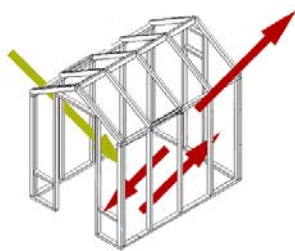

There is, however, a big problem. Too much greenhouse gases are going to the atmosphere because of the way we live. For example, with a great number of cars, there is too much CO₂. Also, farm animals give off a lot of CH₄, another greenhouse gas. If we want to “ cool down” our earth, a good start is to change our way of life, like driving less and eating less meat.
